 - (iii) five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;
 - d) where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) are not applicable, an event/information may be treated as being material, if in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, the event / information is considered material.

2. Where the Company makes disclosures to the Stock Exchanges, under Clause A, B, C or D above, the Company will also disclose material development(s) on the said event/information from time to time.
3. The Company will also disclose to the Stock Exchanges, with respect to its subsidiaries, events and information which are material to the Company.
4. The Company shall first disclose to the stock exchange(s) all events or information which are material in terms of the provisions of this regulation as soon as reasonably possible and in any case not later than the following:

- (i) thirty minutes from the closure of the meeting of the Board of Directors in which the decision pertaining to the event or information has been taken;

Provided that in case the meeting of the Board of Directors closes after normal trading hours of that day but more than three hours before the beginning of the normal trading hours of the next trading day, the Company shall disclose the decision pertaining to the event or information, within three hours from the closure of the Board Meeting.

Provided further that in case the meeting of the Board of Directors is being held for more than one day, the financial results shall be disclosed within thirty minutes or three hours, as applicable, from closure of such meeting for the day on which it has been considered.

Explanation: Normal trading hours shall mean time period for which the recognized stock exchanges are open for trading for all investors.

- (ii) twelve hours from the occurrence of the event or information, in case the event or information is emanating from within the Company;
- (iii) twenty four hours from the occurrence of the event or information, in case the event or information is not emanating from within the Company:

Provided that disclosure with respect to events for which timelines have been specified in Part A of Schedule III shall be made within such timelines.

Provided that if all the relevant information, in respect of claims which are made against the Company under any litigation or dispute, other than tax litigation or dispute, in terms of subparagraph 8 of paragraph B of Part A of Schedule III, is maintained in the structured digital database of the Company in terms of provisions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, the disclosure with respect to such claims shall be made to the stock exchange(s) within seventy-two hours of receipt of the notice by the Company.

Provided further that in case the disclosure is made after the timelines specified under this regulation, the Company shall, along with such disclosure provide the explanation for the delay.

5. The Chairman, Managing Director, Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary are jointly/severally authorised for the purpose of determining materiality of an event or information.
6. The Chairman, Managing Director, Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary of the Company are severally authorised for making disclosures of such material events or information to the Stock Exchanges and for posting it on the website of the Company and the same shall be available on the website for a minimum period of five years.
7. The employees of the Company having access to, or becoming aware of the occurrence of, an event and/or information which are material shall report such event or information, as soon as possible, to the persons authorised above so as to enable them to determine the materiality of an event / information and disclose the same to the stock exchanges within specified timeline.
8. The Chairman and Managing Director are severally authorised to make appropriate changes to the above policy as may be deemed expedient taking into account the law for the time being in force.
9. The Policy will be posted on the website of the Company www.necoindia.com.
10. This Policy is subject to review by the Board of Directors of the Company from time to time.
